Class Poem

Our high school days we leave behind,
Our future conquests clear in mind.
The plans we've made we must fulfill,
Though clouds of war may threaten still.

The wealth we have is what we've learned,
The strength we show cannot be spurned.
When we conquer self, and our battle's won,
Our task in life is then well done.

We trust in God to show the way,
To lead us through each night and day,
And though the path be rough and steep,
We'll reach our goal; our faith we'll keep.

—JAMES BAKER

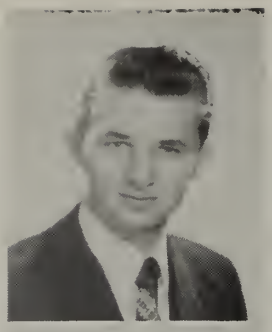
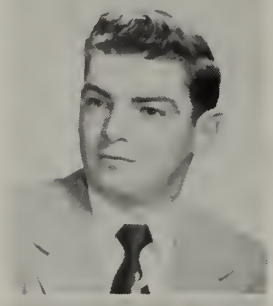
OUR Grads



RAYMOND ABEL

"Blessed is he who invented sleep."

Ray is a very shy lad, but once you get to know him, you will find him to be the life of the party. He is not the most serious student in the school, but is one of the most likeable. Best of luck in the future, Ray.



RICHARD AGHOIAN

"There is humor in everything."

Senior Play Committee — Various Committees

Dick is a curly haired lad with a wonderful sense of humor. He is a very serious student, but no matter how serious he may be, he is never without a smile for all. We are sure that success will be yours, Dick.

SHEILA ALLARD

"People have more fun than anybody."

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4
Cheerleader 2, 3, 4
Various Committees
P. T. S. A. 3, 4

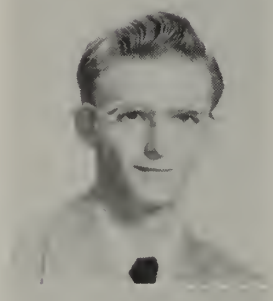
Year Book Staff
Senior Play Committee

"Satch" needs no introduction to her classmates. A contagious spirit of friendliness and an animated disposition characterize Sheila. Loads of luck to a future M. H. S. teacher.

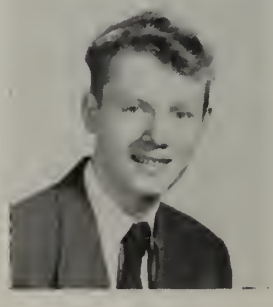


EUGENE AMISS

"Trouble never troubles him."

Band 1, 2, 3, 4
Basketball 1, 2
P. T. S. A. 3, 4
Various Committees

Gene is fortunate to possess such a wonderful sense of humor. He can always be counted on for a sharp-witted remark. With his training as a businessman in his father's record shop and his friend-winning ways, we are sure that he will be successful in his chosen career.



WALTER ANDREWS

"Life is just a bowl of cherries."

Senior Play — Various Committees

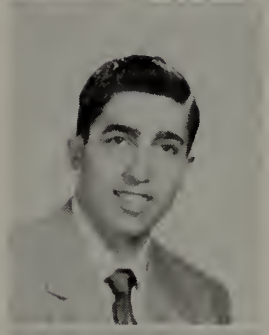
Walter is known by all his classmates as the tall, redheaded, freckled-faced lad, with a love for popular music. His splendid performance in the senior play will never be forgotten. Best of luck to a disc jockey hopeful.

ROSALIE ANGE

"Wit and charm has she."

Italian Club 4 — Glee Club 3

Rosalie as a happy, carefree girl who is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. With your peppy personality you are sure to be a success. Good luck for a bright future, Rosalie.

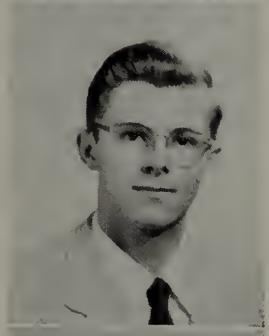


ARTHUR ARAKELIAN

"He may be quiet, but look again."

Cadets 2 — Senior Play Committee

Art is one of the more reserved members of our class. His pleasing manner and disposition make him a very easy person to get along with. The best of luck to you, Art.

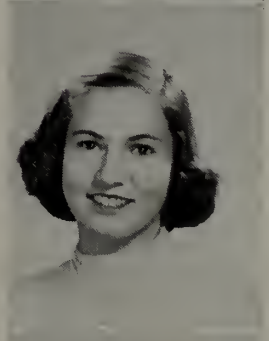


JAMES BAKER

"Earnest and diligent — success is his."

Cadets 2

Jimmy, one of our quieter senior boys, spends all of his spare time on his hobby, radios. His friendly manner makes him well-liked by all of his classmates. Best of luck in the future, Jim.



AUDREY BANKS

"A pleasant smile, a winning way,
Success is sure to come her way."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees
Year Book Staff — Senior Play Committee
P. T. S. A. 3, 4 — Y-Teens 4

Behind Audrey's quiet and reserved manner, we find a bundle of energy ready for fun. She is one of the most ardent supporters of our school activities. Best of luck to a future nurse.

MARY ANN BENNETT

"Petite in size — great in mind,
A sweeter girl you'll never find."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees
Commencement Usherette 3 — Year Book Staff
Senior Play — Treasurer of Honor Society 4
Blue and White 4 — Y-Teens 2

A sweet miss with a sparkling smile describes Mary Ann. She is known for her jolly disposition and teasing ways. Mary Ann will certainly be an asset to the nursing profession. Lots of luck, Mary Ann.

JANICE BROCHU

"Quiet, yet not so quiet."

Glee Club 3, 4 — Senior Play Committee

Jan is a petite girl, who takes her work seriously. She's rather shy, but once you get to know her, you realize that her friendliness is overwhelming. May the future hold only happiness for you, Jan.

MARION BROWN

"Silence is Golden."

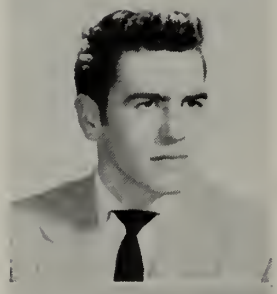
A friendly girl with a pleasing smile describes Marion. She is always ready to lend a helping hand or a listening ear. Here's wishing her success in the future, and knowing her, she'll have nothing but success.

PHYLLIS BUNKER

"What's life without a smile?"

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees
Student Council 4 — Year Book Staff
Glee Club 3, 4

Phyllis is anything but quiet. There is always a look of mischief in her eyes, and you can be sure that there is a reason behind it. Keep that smile, pep, and wonderful sense of humor, Phyllis, and you will reach the top.



WILLIAM BURBY

"A light heart lives long."

Football 1 — Various Committees
Basketball 2 — Baseball 3
Glee Club, Vice President 4

Bill is a happy-go-lucky guy. You always see him laughing! When the 1:30 bell rings, you can be sure that Bill is the first one out the door. He's popular and a neat dresser. Good luck in the future, Bill.

JOAN BUTURLIA

"Sweet and neat."

Senior Play Committee — Year Book Staff
Various Committees — Glee Club 3

Joan always has a friendly "Hi" for those she knows. Her neat appearance and sparkling eyes rate a second glance. She is smiling all the time, and above all else, she's courteous and helpful. Best of luck, Joan.

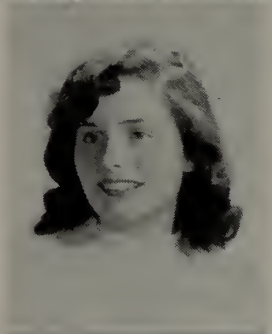
JANET BENTLEY

"She'll sing her way through life"

Various Committees — Senior Play

Glee Club 3, 4 — Y-Teens 2, 3

Janet's many friends can attest to her fun-loving ways. Her main interest at the present time lies in music. May success always be yours, Janet.



JACQUELINE BOHNE

"Liked by all who know her."

Glee Club 3, 4 — Senior Play Committee

Jackie's pleasant smile has made her many friends. She is always prepared to greet you with a merry "Hello". May the future hold success for you, Jackie.

CONSTANCE BOUCHER

"Light of heart, gay of spirits."

Glee Club 3, 4

Connie's pretty red hair and cheerful smile have made her well-liked by all. Her lively sense of humor has been an asset to Tenney. Best of luck, Connie, in your chosen career.

JEAN BOYNES

"Beauty and brains go well together."

Senior Play — Blue and White 4

Yearbook Staff — Various Committees

Honor Society 4 — Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3

A pretty girl with a matching personality, Jean is an asset to our class. Her friendly smile is seen by many from behind a cash register in the cafeteria. Her ability to get along with people will help her in her chosen career, nursing. Lots of luck in the future, Jean.

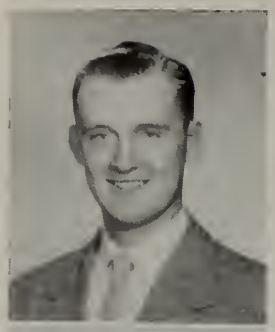
CLAUDETTE BRETTON

"Her eyes sparkle with merriment."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees

Yearbook Staff — Senior Play

"Clyde's" winning smile and personality have won her a host of friends. Her happiness knows no end. T. H. S. will always remember her cute dimples. Keep smiling "Clyde", and the world is sure to smile back.



ROBERT CARTER

"Stand by, a mighty man is passing."

Editor of Year Book — Orchestra 1, 3, 4
Senior Play Committee — Various Committees

Bob is a great asset to our school with his fine trumpet playing. He is a very serious-minded person, but has a fine sense of humor. His willingness to work plus his tendency to put the best into life are certain to reap a harvest abundantly rich.

ANGELINA CATALANO

"Good luck befriend thee."

Italian Club 2 — Y-Teens 4

From outward appearances, Angie seems quiet; but once you get to know her, you find her to be overflowing with fun. Keep your winning ways, and we feel certain that success and happiness will be yours.

SHIRLEY CHARETTE

"This life is most jolly."

Shirley is gay and light-hearted, taking things as they come. She is the kind of a girl that makes friends easily. Shirley's future work is going to be one of domesticity. Best of luck, Shirley.

LEO CHATIS

"Something to think about."

Football 1, 2, 3, 4 — Orchestra 1
Various Committees — Band 1
Basketball 1 — Glee Club 3, 4

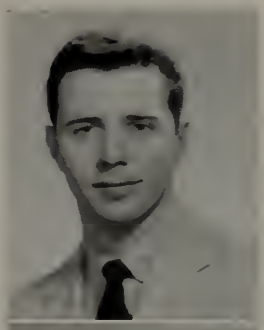
Leo is a boy whose dark good looks have occasioned many an admiring feminine glance. Although he takes his studies seriously, he can always be counted on to join in the fun. If you maintain this matchless balance of humor and seriousness, Leo, you will find that the road of life will lie smooth and straight before you.

ELAINE CHENGERIAN

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Various Committees — Year Book Staff
Glee Club 3, 4 — Blue and White 4

Elaine's sociability and love of a good time account for her popularity among us. She's neat in appearance and can't help but be a success in all her future endeavors. Lots of luck in the future, Elaine.



DAVID CIARDELLO

"Nothing ever worries him."

Dave is a happy fellow, who, along with his cheerful ways, has a friendly "Hi" for everyone. His humor brightens up many a dull class, especially English. He is sure to succeed in whatever line of work he chooses.

NANCY CICCARELLI

"A sweeter girl you will never find."

Italian Club 3, 4 — Senior Play Committee
Glee Club 1

Nancy is a petite miss with a sparkling personality. She is neat and well dressed, and her friendly ways are liked by all. Your charming ways will certainly prove to be an asset in your chosen career.

PATRICIA CYR

"A gleam in her eyes and a smile on her lips."

Glee Club 1, 3

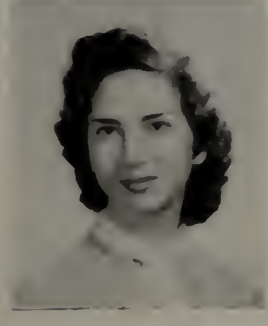
A friendly smile and a happy "Hi" greet all who meet Pat. She is quick with her sympathy and ready with a helping hand — a truly loyal friend. May success be your in the future, Pat.

IRENE DALTON

"Let a smile be your umbrella."

Various Committees — Band 1, 2, 3, 4
Year Book Staff — Senior Play
Blue and White 4

Irene's pleasant disposition and friendly smile has won and will win her many friends. Her democratic ways have made her an asset to our class. Irene's talkativeness has added pep to many a conversation. We are sure that you will more than succeed, Irene.

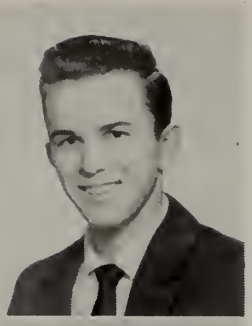


CONSTANCE DeMARCO

"Good natured pleasant and winning."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Italian Club
Glee Club 1

Although Connie is one of the quieter members of the class, she is very friendly and likeable. Her quiet manner and warm smile make her a very pleasant person to know. May happiness and good luck follow you wherever you go, Connie.



CLYDE DEMARS

"Whatever the hour, he'll never look sour."

Cadets 2, 3

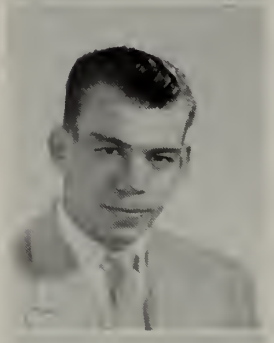
Clyde is one of our most carefree and happy-go-lucky classmates. His pranks and witty remarks are well-known throughout the school. Clyde, with your sparkling personality and wonderful gift of gab, you are bound to succeed.

CHRISTINE DEMETREA

"Clod, deadwood, atrophied brain cells
Dead to wonder and delight . . . . . "

Italian Club 3, 4 — Senior Play

Chris possesses a radiant smile that lets everyone know that she is a happy-go-lucky lass with lots of pep. We musn't forget to mention the terrific performance she turned out as "Aunt Kyle" in our Senior Play. Her friendliness, sincerity, and merry good humor will carry her far on the road to success. Best of luck, Chris.



WILLIAM DEMING

"He will have laughter wherever he goes."

Football 2, 3, 4 — Baseball 2, 3, 4
Cadets 2, 3; Officer 4

Bill is a senior who will be remembered as mischievous and fun-loving. Although his favorite pastimes are playing Chop-sticks on the piano and teasing his classmates, Bill has a serious side — but few have ever seen it! Best of luck in whatever you attempt.

ELEANOR DiLAVORE

'A poet is born, not made."

Cheerleader 1 — Blue and White 4
Year Book Staff — Senior Play Committee
Italian Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3 — Various Committees
Secretary of Honor Society 4

Ellie is a petite, well-dressed miss whose creative abilities have won her the honor of being our class poet. Although she ranks high scholastically, her lively sense of humor prevents her from being serious for too long a period of time. Best of luck in the years to come, Ellie.

MAUREEN DONOVAN

"Twinkling eyes that light her way."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Glee Club 3
Majorettes 3 — Senior Play Committee
Various Committees

Maureen is an elfish girl whose original ejaculations have endeared her to her many friends. She works conscientiously at any task which is set before her. I'm sure the future hold the realization of all your dreams, Maureen.

ANN DOYLE

"Gay and lively always."

Glee Club 1, 3 — Cheerleader 1

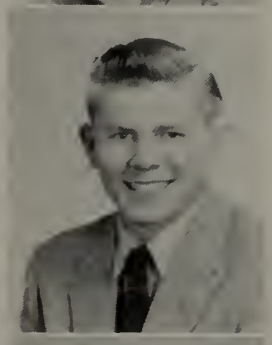
Anne is an energetic miss who is constantly in motion. Her exuberance is refreshing and her gaiety contagious. You are bound to be successful in whatever you do, Anne.

CORRINE ELSTON

"Flitting here, flitting there."

Blue and White 4 (Co-Editor) — Year Book Staff
Girls' and Boys' A. A. 2 — Senior Play
Honor Society — Magazine Drive Manager 1

Corrine is, without a doubt, one of the most capable of our class. As an actress she has proven herself tops, and much credit goes to her for making the "Blue and White" a success. May your future always be bright, Corrine.



ROBERT EMMONS

"Tenshun, you all."

Football 1 — Track 4
Cadets 2, 3, Col. 4 — Glee Club 1
Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees

Bob is a young man who is likely to show up where you least expect him. He is noted for doing and saying the unusual. With your cheerful ways, Bob, we feel certain that you will be a success in all you undertake.

DIANA ENGLISH

"Softly speak and sweetly smile."

Glee Club 3, 4 — Commencement Usherette 3

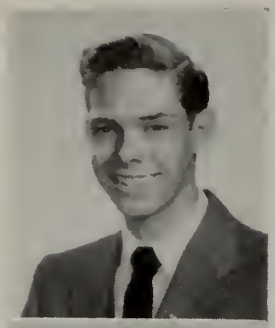
Diane makes a neat appearance and is well-liked by all her classmates. Although she is quiet, she knows how to have fun at the right times. Dianne's ladylike ways have won her popularity at Tenney, and we feel sure that she will succeed in the future.

JAMES ENUS

"Faint heart never won fair lady."

Golf 2 — Class President 4
Year Book Staff — Senior Play Committee
P. T. S. A. Historian 3, 4 — Honor Society 4
Student Exchange 4 — Various Committees

As president of our Senior class, Jim has worked hard. However, there was always a little time off for play. His drive and ambition have aided his school and will surely bring success to him in the future.

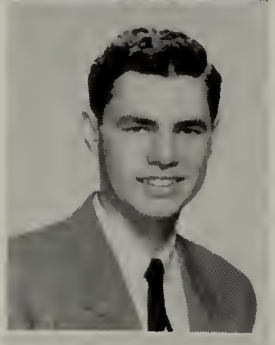


FRANK FAY

"A little work, a little play."

Track 2, 3, 4 — Cadets 2

Most people think of Frank as quiet, but those who know him will say that it isn't so. His quietness often gives way to his wonderful sense of humor. We feel sure that his quiet and friendly manner will bring him success.



LEONARD FINNEGAN

"With a song in his heart, and a smile on his lips."

Talent Show 3, 4 — Year Book Staff
Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Various Committees
Cadets 3, Officer 4

"Tex" is as friendly as the songs that he sings. In the short time he has been at Tenney, he has become known to many people as a wonderful fellow, as well as singer. Keep singing, Lennie, and you'll never run out of friends.

ELLEN FOLEY

"The world is made for fun and frolic."

Girls' and Boys' A. A. 3 — Italian Club 3, 4

Ellen is one of the happiest girls you would ever want to know. Her terrific sense of humor and smile have been a real asset to Tenney High. May success be yours, Ellen.

MARGARET FOX

"Full of ambition, she's sure to succeed,
She has the intelligence that she will need."

President's Address

Mr. Sturke, members of the School Committee, teachers, parents, and students, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the Class Day exercises of the graduating class of 1955.

We are indeed honored to have been a part of this well-organized school. Here we have learned much that will be most beneficial to us in the future.

For two years we have functioned as one body working together toward an ultimate goal. Soon we shall become 140 individuals each seeking fortune in an insecure world whose future at present is precariously hanging in the balance.

In the past our footsteps echoed through the halls of Tenney. However, in a few short days, these halls will no longer know our presence.

Although our separation is a sorrowful event, we must strive for success so that we may some day provide others with the excellent opportunities we have received here. As we patiently work toward our goal may we always remember "He conquers who conquers himself."

—JAMES ENUS

Class Oration

"He conquers, who conquers himself" in the Latin is "Vincit qui se vincit". As we all know, this is our class motto, by which we have tried to live during our four years of high school. and which we hope will influence the rest of our lives. But how many of us really understand the significance of these words? No doubt, we all realize that in order for us to become successful men and women we must first know ourselves — our weak points as well as our capabilities. So it is of utmost importance that we be particularly frank and honest in screening our potentialities. After we have come to a truthful evaluation of our abilities, then we must resolve to conquer our weaknesses. Whether we are successful or not in doing so — that will be the true test of our achievement. All along the road of life there will be many obstacles to overcome and hardship to be endured. There will be hard knocks to challenge us and it is up to us to have the courage and determination to pick ourselves up after being knocked down, and then to go forward. This is easier said than done, but there are many things in life that are not easy.

I would like to relate to you the inspiring story of one of the world's most courageous women, Helen Keller, who succeeded in conquering herself and in so doing serves as a fine example to all mankind. Helen Keller was a blind and deaf girl, who when she was scarcely one year old, had been taken desperately ill. She was not expected to live, but when the fever finally left her, she slowly became well. It was some time before it was discovered that the sickness had left her in a dark, still room of life, where sights and sounds could never penetrate. What was there in life for a child so afflicted?

This girl with her intensely active mind and a great desire for self-expression was obliged to drift through silent, shadowy days and weeks of childhood, unlike other children, knowing nothing but the dreary solitude to which she seemed doomed. Then almost as a gift from God, Miss Anne Sullivan, a patient and devoted teacher, was sent to her. Learning to conquer her blindness and her deafness was slow, and many times a frustrating process for Helen Keller, but gradually she progressed and began to read, to understand, and to be understood. Helen Keller was determined to be victor and not be vanquished.

While she was still very young, she set for herself an almost impossible goal — college — and in October, 1896, she did enter the Cambridge Preparatory School to prepare for Radcliffe, the college she wished with all her heart and soul to attend. Now, there were years of hard, unceasing work with difficulties in them enough to discourage a normal girl with both sight and hearing. The strain of the work was very great; however, undaunted by having to read examination papers in three kinds of Braille and other difficulties, Helen Keller took her final examinations and passed!

College! On an equal footing with girls who could see and hear! Here was a girl among girls — in spite of all her handicaps — in spite of days too dark to mention, she lived a story of such courage as has rarely been equalled. To Helen Keller, dark days were only an incentive to overcome more obstacles.

She once said, "I never fight — except against difficulties". In this statement lies the kernel of her real character. From the very first she was a fighter, but against enemies of no common kind — against handicaps and obstacles.

This is the story of Helen Keller, a girl learning to love and live and study and appreciate all that her starved nature cried out to understand and express — a promoter of the welfare of the blind, teacher and lecturer, noted for her accomplishments wherever her name is known. Talk about courage, about perseverance, about ambition, then speak the name of Anne Sullivan Macy's famous pupil, Helen Keller!

Now fellow classmates, as the time of our departure draws near, let us resolve to follow for the rest of our lives the fine example of this great and courageous American woman. Remember that with the help of our Almighty Creater, we too can accomplish the seeming impossible, for "He conquers, who conquers himself".

Class History

In a few days, we, the members of the class of 1955, will be alumni of Tenney High School. Behind us are memories of some of the most enjoyable years of our lives.

On a bright September morning in 1952, we climbed Baptist Hill to become the last sophomore class of the Edward F. Searles High School. We were very proud to be there, but also looked up rather humbly to the upperclassmen. Everything was so confusing at first — especially the rotating schedule of the class periods. Gradually, we became accustomed to our new surroundings.

After electing president, Paul Arold; vice-president, Edward Spicer; secretary, Helen Bamford; treasurer, Frances Schruender; and Student Council members Sheila Allard and Justine Jesser, we at last had the feeling that we belonged.

Then came our memorable Sophomore Reception. After the grand march and entertainment, during which the Senior Class President officially welcomed us, the lights went out in the middle of a storm. The excitement which followed made our reception quite different from any other.

In February came the annual Talent Show. It was our first, and we were all proud of Fred Trickett, who represented our class very well, winning second prize.

At Senior Chapel, held on the lawn in June, Mr. Skillings announced the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Awards. Honored from our class, on the basis of outstanding character, good sportsmanship, cooperation, and scholarship, were Sandra Giles and Fred Trickett.

Before we realized it, the year was over and we were leaving Searles, with its ivy-covered walls and established traditions, for a beautiful new high school.

We were Juniors! Upperclassmen! We chose to lead our class, during the first year in our new school, president, Paul Arnold; vice-president, Andrew Laurin; secretary, Helen Bamford; treasurer, Frances Schruender; and to represent us on the Student Council, Sheila Allard, Peggy Fox, Sandra Giles, and Carole Hoyt.

This time we were helping the Seniors give the Freshman-Sophomore Reception, since there were two new classes in the high school.

An election was held later in the year to fill a vacancy in the office of class secretary. Justine Jesser was elected.

The first Talent Show in the new auditorium was held in February. Among those participating from our class were the "Valley Ramblers", Lennie Finnegan, Bob Monfet, and Bob Carver, who stole the show — and first prize — with their guitars, and rendition of "Cool, Clear Water".

That year at Senior Chapel, the Good Citizenship Awards went to Carole Hoyte and Fred Trickett.

September! It hardly seemed possible that we had come so far in such a short time, but there we were — Seniors! A few weeks after school began, we elected president, James Enus; vice-president, Pete Huston; secretary, Mildred Haykal; and for taking such good care of our money, we re-elected Frances Schruender. Phyllis Bunker joined Sheila, Peggy, Sandra, and Carole on the Student Council.

The first Freshman Reception was held on October 29 in the gym, with President Enus doing the honors.

Then came the chance for our more talented classmates to show their acting ability. After several weeks of rehearsing, intensive because of the early date of the Senior Play, the curtain rose on "Curtain Going Up." Under Mrs. Richardson's very capable coaching, the play was a success and received many favorable comments. The individual performances given during the evening indicated the presence of some Barrymores in our midst. Corrine Elston was outstanding in her portrayal of Miss Burgess, one of the leading female characters.

At an impressive ceremony in January, seventeen seniors and fifteen juniors were installed as charter members of the Methuen chapter of the National Honor Society. Seniors elected as officers were Betty Kinney, president; Eleanor DiLavore, secretary, and Mary Ann Bennett, treasurer. Miss Lange is faculty adviser of the chapter.

A few weeks later, the annual magazine drive was on, but this year, all four classes participated to earn money for their respective treasuries. Marilyn Wardwell and Paul Wormald were the top salesmen in the Senior class.

Danny Hajjar did a commendable job as Master of Ceremonies at the Talent Show in March. Although no prizes were awarded, each class was well represented with talent, and the sponsor of the show was that well-known breakfast cereal, "LOST".

March also brought the forty-ninth annual Military Ball, for which the cadets had been practicing for weeks. The grand march was led by Cadet Colonel Robert Emmons and Marilyn Wardwell.

Sandra Giles was elected to represent the school on Good Government Day at the State House in Boston.

Work was started on our yearbook, and Robert Carter was elected editor-in-chief. Chosen to be assistant editors were Mildred Haykal and Eve Leoff.

At an assembly in April, the honors for graduation and class day were announced: Eve Leoff, valedictorian; Marie Max, salutatorian; Sandra Giles, honor essayest; and Mildred Haykal, class orator. From the other honor graduates the class chose Jacqueline Viet and Frank Savona to write the class will; Peggy Fox, the class history; Eleanor DiLavore and Albert Korelishn, the class prophecy.

To raise money for the Prom, the class sponsored a public whist party. In May came our Yearbook Dance, which was a girl-ask-boy affair and appropriately called a "Twirp Twirl". The Band Dance followed, and once again . . .

. . . it is June. At Senior Chapel, Mildred Haykal and Fred Trickett received the D.A.R Good Citizenship Awards.

Our Senior Prom was an event to be remembered. The gym, beautifully decorated to provide a formal setting, showed evidence of the many hours that were devoted to planning the highlight of the Senior year. Several local organizations contributed time and money to aid us in making the affair a success. Following general dancing, we were escorted to a movie premiere. To complete the evening, we returned to the high school for a delicious supper and professional entertainment.

On Sunday, June 12, Baccalaureate services were held in the First Church Congregational. Our caps and gowns were donned for the first time — the girls in white and the boys in blue.

This is Class Day, and Graduation is but one step away. We look back with sadness, with the realization that our days in high school are at an end, but look ahead with anticipation to the future. Although each of us will go his own separate ways, the friends we have made, and the good times and hard work we have had while learning together, will never be forgotten.

At Senior Chapel, Mildred Haykal and Fred Trickett received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Awards. In recognition of their qualities of leadership, Sandra Giles and Peter Huston were presented with certificates from the Danforth Foundation.

This year, the American Legion awarded medals to the Senior girl and boy who most typify the qualities of honor, courage, scholarship, leadership, service, companionship and character. Sandra Giles and Robert Carter were the recipients of the medals.

Class Prophecy

SETTING: Naval Base, South Weymouth, Mass.
TIME: 1975.
EVENT: The first launching of a rocket to the moon.

Al: Oh, excuse me, Miss, if I bumped into you. It's so crowded here today, one can hardly move. Gee, you look so familiar! Did you graduate from Tenney High in 1955?

Ellie: Why, yes, aren't you Albert Korelishn? Remember Eleanor DiLavore? That's me!

Al: I thought I had seen you before! I see you have come to see the excitement, too. Did you know that Ed Stanley is going to be the brave pilot of the rocket?

Ellie: Yes, I read about it in your column of "The Pelham Chronicle" this morning. Ed is going to be assisted by Bob Emmons of co-pilot. Boy, what a pair! With those two working together, they'll surely reach the moon.

Al: That's not all! Listen to this scoop that I just picked up. Some of the engineers include Jack Hall, Frank Savona, and Walter Vignault. Also on board will be those noted scientists, Fred Trickett, Donald Walbridge, and Chuck Vernis.

Ellie: I think I see a familiar spectator in the crowd. Why, it can't be! Yes, I do believe it is Chris Demetrea. She has made quite a name for herself as a doctor at the "Happy Hearts and Hurry Home" Hospital founded by that wonderful team, Doctors James Enus and Peter Huston. Working there under the supervision of Peggy Fox, Registered Nurse, are the following nurses: Audrey Banks, Justine Jesser, Mary Ann Bennett, Maureen Donovan, and Cynthia Hunter.

Al: By the way, I met Jerry Mambro last week. He told me that he is leading his own orchestra now and is featuring Bob Carter and his "cool" trumpet. He's playing at the "Morris" Club, where Pat has employed Kathy O'Brien and Marie Mercier as hat check girls.

Ellie: Did you see the "Dave Ciardello Hour" last night on television?

Al: Yes, wasn't it wonderful! I see Janet Bentley and Janet Wilson are still singing that every popular ballad "Davy Crockett".

Ellie: Why, There's Nancy Ciccarelli and her triplets! She married shortly after she entered Merrimack College.

Al: Speaking of marriage, did you know that John Kilbane and Marilyn Keegan were married recently?

Ellie: Well, it's about time! Say, is it true that Ellen Foley, Gloria Galusso, Janice Brochu, Dot Grande, and Carol Moss are teachers at Tenney High School?

Al: Yes, Danny Hajjar is the new principal, and Pat Korelishn is his private secretary.

Ellie: Well, that news, and that brings up the subject of newspapers. Corrine Elston has her own paper now. She certainly went to the top. Her reporters are Walter Andrews, Diane English, Connie McAndrew, and Pat Quinlan. Donald Popielarski edits the "Advice to the Lovelorn" column.

Al: Why, in yesterday's issue I read that the "Andy Laurin Construction Company" just brought suit against Al Torrisi for running his oil truck into one of Andy's new houses. Al's attorney is John Pickles, who is fighting the case against Dick Morency.

Ellie: That's surprising. Dick was always so quiet in school!

Al: Well, look who bought a hotel in town — Barbara Harrington, and she hired Milton Lebowitz, James Baker, and Billy Burby as bell-hops.

Ellie: Yes, Eddie Fleming was just fired as manager, and Leo Chatis took over his position.

Al: I hadn't heard, but I saw Clyde Demars, Gene Amiss, and Stanley Pelcza waiting on tables, and Alice Manning was the cigarette girl. By the way, are you still buying for Wilfred Kirkman's Department Store?

Ellie: No, as a matter of fact, I'm not. I just opened my own dress shop in town. Some of my lovely models are Irene Gentile, Shiela Allard, Jean Ratcliffe, and Carole Hoyt. Joan Buturlia, noted designer, creates most of the fashions.

Al: I'll bet you have a successful enterprise. Look! There's Bill Deming, Methuen's latest football coach, with Jack McDermott, professor at Wentworth College.

Ellie: I met them at a luncheon held in honor of Sandra Giles, who is running for Governor of Massachusetts. Eve Leoff, Joyce Hilbert, and Judy Lister were also there campaigning for Sandy.

Al: Before I forget to tell you, Robert McAvoy has a taxi service in Lawrence. Carol Gebo, Pat Cyr, Carol Scott, Claire Scaff, and Eunice Starta are employed as drivers. Bob also employed Normand Rivard and Paul Wormald as his A-1 mechanics.

Ellie: I guess I'll take the bus home. Oh, look! There's Richard Aghoian and Arthur Arkelian at the radar controls in the tower. I haven't seen them since graduation.

Al: Well, they certainly made good. Did you know that Roselie Angie, Connie DeMarco, Jackie Bohne, and Angie Catalano are secretaries at the Frank Fay Liability Company.

Ellie: Yes, I heard that Gene Poulin tried to collect for injuries, but when Mitch Saab, the adjuster for the company, investigated the case, he found that Gene's leg had been falsely put into a cast by a quack doctor, Bill Salois.

Al: The last I heard, Janet Pauk, Jean Boynes, Irene Dalton, and Elaine Chengerian were working at the new medical laboratory in Methuen as medical technicians. The switchboard operators there are Claudette Bretton, Barbara Wlodyka, and Sonya Patenaude.

Ellie: I hear Annette Giordano, Jane Lerned, Bernadette Hamel, Janice Patterson, Barbara McGovern, and Lucille Mancini are tellers at the Kiver Co-operative Bank. James Holmes is the president, and Richard Keene and Ray Abel the managers.

Al: Well, Bob always did have a head for figures. Is it true that he financed Marlene Zazarian's jewelry store?

Ellie: Yes he did, and he also helped Gail Kellerher and Gloria Morency establish the "Drive-in Theater".

Al: Why, isn't that Harley Freedman? I hear she has opened "The Foot Loose and Fancy Free Dancing School".

Ellie: Right, and Joan Ratcliffe, Carol Rhodes, Barbara Waite, and Ruth Sokol are instructors there.

Al: They sure must give their customers a rough time. By the way, do you know what Marie Max, Millie Haykal, and Betty Kinney are doing now?

Ellie: Last I heard, they were in charge of the James Shirton Engineering Firm.

Al: Come to think of it, if you happen to have a toothache, be sure to drop in to see Dr. Raymond Ruhmann. You may be one of the lucky ones to hit his special bargain — two teeth for the price of one. Lovely Jackie Veit assists Ray by holding hands with all the handsome male patients.

Ellie: I'm sure she does her job with efficiency. Frannie Schruender, who has just been named as head coach of the All-American Girl's Basketball Team, stopped in my dress shop last week. She had just flown in from the coast via Frank Gellinas' Airline. A few of the hostesses working for Frank include Nancy Whittemore, Carol Voight, Connie Boucher, Phyllis Bunker, Shirley Charette and Barbara Gilchrist.

Al: I spent yesterday afternoon in Bill Roeger's Turkish Bath. I met Joe Rizkallah and Fred Skaff working there. Art McAvoy's laundry supplies the spotless towels. Bob Monfet, John O'Wril, Lenny Finnegan, and Phil Spada are his drivers.

Ellie: I stopped in at Tom Mosson's Beauty Salon last week to have my hair done. Tom, who is a male hair stylist, employs Marion Brown, Barbara Gagne, Eugene Santos, Eleanor Rumore, Sylvia Strovink, and Mary Traina as hair dressers. Marilyn Wardwell is his receptionist, and Claire St. Pierre and Ann Doyle are employed as manicurists.

Al: Look, I think the rocket is about to take off! I sure hope their trip is successful.

Ellie: There it goes! Well, I guess I had better be going. It was nice seeing you again.

Al: The pleasure was mutual. Perhaps we'll meet again when the rocket returns. Bye.

Ellie: Good-bye, Al.

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of Tenney High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this last will and testament.

We, the Seniors who occupied the table opposite the teachers' table in the cafeteria, leave with a greater knowledge of teachers and their pastimes.

I, Eve Leoff, leave Sandy Woronka my ability to dash into home room in the morning just as the last bell is ringing.

We, the Editors of The Torch, Bob Carter, Eve Leoff and Millie Haykal, leave the printers of our yearbook a bottle of Bromo-Seltzer.

I, Mary Ann Bennett, am leaving in too much of a hurry to leave anything to anybody.

I, Jim Enus, leave my oil-stained parking spot to Bill DePardo on condition that he and I erect a well and dig for "our" oil one year from this day.

We, Carol Rhodes and Shirley Charette, leave to the inheritors of Miss Brouder's Home Economics class a box of baking soda to be taken internally.

I, Eugenie Santos, happily leave my seats in Mr. Deschenes's classes to any Junior who wants them.

I, Harley Freedman, leave my seat in Glee Club to another talkative first soprano with the fond hope that she can sing a clear high "G".

We, Dot Grande, Gail Kelleher and Carole Hoyt, leave hoping that next year's basketball guards will be as successful as we were.

I, Art McEvoy, hereby leave my job as class "disc jockey" to William Johnson.

We, Irene Dalton, Barbara Wlodyka, and Jackie Veit, leave, with no regrets, our seats in French class which we have occupied the last two years.

I, Marie Max, leave to some deserving Junior the pleasure of serving as chairman of the ceiling committee for the Military Ball decorations.

We, Danny Hajjar, Ed Stanley, Jim Holmes, Bud Kirkman, and John Hall, leave . . . . . gladly.

I, Justine Jesser, hereby leave to my sister Chris the ability to bother Mr. Hannigan.

I, Fred Skaff, leave to any deserving pupil who has Miss Sherman for first year algebra, my job as "Book Cover Inspector".

We, Rosalie Ange, Jackie Bohne, and Bernie Hamel, leave with enthusiasm.

I, Marie Mercier, leave my seat in Miss Southworth's room to any Junior girl who can giggle as loud as I did.

We, Thomas Mosson and Norman Rivard, leave to Miss Lange peace of mind.

I, Sylvia Strovink, leave to my sister my seat in "Pop's" room.

We, the fifth period English of Miss Coulson, leave with the hope that Miss Coulson's class of "56" doesn't add to the grey hairs we have given her.

I, Donald Walbridge, hereby leave my "sleeping" seat in Mr. Deschene's algebra class.

I, "Honey" Starta, leave Dick Gouvin to Hazel Cable.

We, Gail Kelleher and Carole Hoyt, return our nickname of "Gold Dust Twins" to Mr. Melia to pass on to two deserving underclassmen.

I, Janet Bentley, leave my seat in Miss Lange's fifth period hoping that some person will enjoy talking in that room as much as I did.

We, Ed Stanley and Art McEvoy, hereby bequeath our ties and our girls to some deserving Juniors.

I, Audrey Banks, leave my quiet ways to Sylvia Garabedian.

We, Anne Doyle, Gloria Morency, Pat Korelishn, and Barbara Waite, leave our shorthand books to the Juniors.

I, Mitchell Saab, leave to next year's golf captain a pair of socks with eighteen holes in them.

We, the members of fifth period physics class, leave Mr. Vallerio peace of mind, at last.

I, Barbara McGovern, leave my seat in study hall to my brother Billy with the hope that he will enjoy it as much is I did.

We, the Seniors of fifth study, leave to Bill DePardo a box of toothpicks so that he will have plenty to munch on next year.

I, Peggy Fox, leave to my cousin Margaret Fox three more years of high school, and hope that she will enjoy them as much as I did.

We, the second period study, leave with the hope that next year's class hasn't as many gum chewers.

I, Janice Patterson, leave to my Brother Billy all the homework he can do in a year.

I, Frank Fay, leave my track uniform to some long-legged underclassman.

We, Joyce Hilbert and Sonya Patenaude, do hereby leave our gym lockers, which are rusty with non-use, to anyone who thinks he can open them.

I, Carole Hoyt, leave my title of "Holder of the Money Bags" to the future Student Council Treasurer.

We, Fred Trickett and Joe Rizkallah, leave to Marie Calobrisi and Joan Enus our places as first trombones in the band.

I, Gail Kelleher, leave to Barbara Hajjar my wishes for a successful basketball season.

We, Cindy Hunter and Harley Freedman, leave fifth period biology and sincerely advise all Sophomores not to wait until their Senior year to take this subject.

I, Elaine Chengerian, will my ability to get caught talking in study hall to a deserving Junior.

Bob Carter leaves all the milk cases in the cafeteria.

We, the Seniors of Pop's fourth period study, leave our seats to less talkative and fun-loving underclassmen.

I, Sheila Allard, leave my homeroom seat to Paul Arold, hoping he can stay in it more than I did.

We, the librarians in first period study, leave our positions, hoping that our successors succeed in making the pupils in study hall laugh.

I, Dot Grande, do hereby bequeath to Charlene Thwaites two more glorious years of school.

I, Lenny Finnegan, leave to a future hillbilly my favorite yodel.

We, Walter Vignault, Frank Savona, Bill Roger, and Jim Shirton, leave our ties to anyone who will buy them.

"Babe" O'Brien leave Dolores DiGloria.

I, Albert Korelishn, leave my favorite parking place to Mr. Law.

We, Judy Lister, Sandy Giles, Irene Gentile, Nancy Ciccarelli, and Pat Quinlan, leave the underclassmen to play moving seats with Mr. Vallerio.

I, Irene Dalton, leave to my brother Billy all the wonderful times I have enjoyed in high school.

We, Annette Giodano, Ellie DiLavore, Peggy Fox, and Claire Skaff, leave our noisy corner in fifth study to some quieter Juniors in the hope that Mr. Melia will enjoy the peace and quiet.

I, Janet Wilson, leave to some deserving underclassman the ability to chew gum five periods a day without getting caught.

We, the Seniors in first period advanced algebra and second period trigonometry leave Mr. Deschene to the underclassmen.

I, Barbara Wlodyke, leave Miss Wright to anyone who can pass her tests.

Eleanor Rumore leave to look for her lost weight.

I, Danny Hajjar, leave to any fun-loving Junior my place on Mr. Vallerio's black list.

I, Maureen Donovan, leave to Beverly Patch my apron which she will find in the supply closet of the Home Economics cooking room.

We, the Senior girls at table three, leave our table and salt shaker to the Juniors at table four, hoping they will put them to as good use as we did.

I, Cookie Mancini, leave my diploma to Marlene Gillespie . . . in case.

I, Nancy Whittemore, leave my end bleacher seat in the gym to some loyal Methuen High basketball fan.

I, Wilfred Kirkman, Jr., leave to some lucky Junior all my "A's".

I, Sonya Patenaude, do hereby leave to Jimmy Valentino one genuine Flash Gordon Atomic Telescope in hopes that he will find more information to report.

I, Marion Brown, leave to some future Senior in Miss McDermott's third year French class "Arsene Lupin".

I, Janet Pauk, leave to my sister Margery four happy years in high school, in hopes that she will enjoy them as much as I did.

We, the girls in Miss Allen's second period English class, leave the Juniors a fund of animal stories in hopes that they will receive "A's".

I, Carol Voigt, do hereby leave to a deserving majorette my position as head majorette.

I, Jean Boynes, leave my cafeteria money box to Dorrie Budd in hopes that she will have her share of troubles.

Al Torrisi leaves his tire marks in the parking area.

I, Phyllis Bunker, leave to some Junior my ability never to stop talking.

I, Shirley Charette, leave my chewing gum under the seat.

I, James Baker, leave to a certain Junior all my compositions and book reports that I wrote in my Senior year.

I, Janet Lerned, leave to all cold-blooded Juniors my first period gym class.

We, Joan Buturlia and Connie DeMarco, leave our seats in the study hall to anyone who can make Mr. Nicholson as upset as we did.

I, Joyce Hilbert, do hereby leave my appetite for the delicious hot lunches.

We, Connie McAndrew and Irene Dalton, leave our cash registers to deserving underclassmen in the hopes that the patrons of the cafeteria do not rattle them as much as we did us.

I, Marion Keegan, leave all the fun I had to a future Senior.

I, Alice Manning, leave to my baby sister the bottle in locker 783.

I, John O'Wril, bequeath the spirit of the Braves to Jack Wagenbach.

I, Frances Schruender, leave Mr. Deschene with a very confused mind.

I, Betty Kinney, leave to "Tut" my position as president of the Honor Society.

We, Janice Patterson, Janet Pauk, and Barbara McGovern, leave our chemistry lockers to some deserving Junior or Senior in hopes that they will keep them as "clean" as we did.

I, Jackie Bohne, leave to Helen Krikorian my gym locker, which I never used.

We, Jean Ratcliffe, Joan Ratcliffe, and Cookie Mancini, leave Miss Coulson with no regrets.

I, Rosalie Ange, leave my locker to anyone who can open it. I never could.

I, Connie Boucher, gladly leave my rocky seat in study hall to some unsuspecting Junior.

We, Sandra Giles, Carole Hoyt, Peggy Fox, Sheila Allard, and Phyllis Bunker, leave Mr. Law and room 314 with much regret to next year's Student Council.

We, Jacquelyn Veit and Frank Savona, leave to two deserving Juniors the honor of writing the class will.

We, the members of the Senior Class, leave behind us our four years of high school education, which were probably the most important of our life. We leave to all our underclassmen our fine school teachers, who will undoubtedly help them toward bigger and brighter things in life.

Signed and witnessed this 11th day of June, 1955, as

Student Council

The Student Council, consisting of fifteen members from the four classes, can well be proud of the record they leave behind them. President Sandra Giles proved more than worthy of the position accorded her. Mr. Alfred N. Law, spending his first year as council adviser, did much to encourage the students in their work. They began their year by establishing the Point System. This gave way to the successful plans for their annual Barn Dance. The were instrumental in forming the Honor Society and also made arrangements for the Student Exchange Program. A Speaker's Bureau, consisting of five Student Council members, spoke at various organizations throughout the town to improve public relations between the school and the townspeople. Two conventions were attended by the members of the council.

The council had the distinct honor of presenting a new flag, which was donated by an anonymous benefactor, to Mr. Beaumont, principal of the school. A profitable sum of money was added to the treasury through the sale of book covers, introduced into the school by the council members. For the first time the Student Council published an annual report, informing the student body of this year's achievements. These are just a few of the successes which are evident of their ardent endeavors throughout the school year.

Blue and White

Through the combined efforts of the entire staff, under the direction of the co-editors, Corinne Elston and Marie Max and the faculty adviser, Mr. Deschenes, the Blue and White has conveyed to the entire student body many interesting articles, and much news about school happenings. The staff succeeded in making many improvements in the magazine.

The following students served as the staff of our school publication: Co-editors, Corinne Elston, Marie Max; Literary Column, Eve Leoff; Girls' Athletics, Martha Dietrich, Sheila Allard, Nancy Whittemore; Boys' Athletics, Peter Huston, Dorothy Grande, Neil Eichhorn; Profiles, Mildred Haykal Peggy Fox, Elaine Chengerian; Exchanges, Patricia Morris, Betty Kinney, Margaret Hausler; What's New, Pamela Ford, Judy Lister, Mary Jane Nassar; Chit Chat, Irene Dalton, Constance McAndrew, Barbara Fink; Alumni, Lois Rooks, Eugenia Santos, Jean Boynes; Nosey Nook, Eleanor DiLavore, Sylvia Strovink, Joan Metzner; Blue & Wit, Gail Kelleher, Ruth Sokol, Mary Ann Bennett; Photography, John Hall; Business Managers, Harley Freedman, Pat Dowd, Marilyn Wardwell, Milton Lebowitz; Faculty Adviser, Mr. Maurice J. Student Government Exchange Committee

On January 11, the student body of Tenney High School elected four representatives to the Student Government Exchange Board. This board, along with many others throughout Massachusetts, participated in a statewide program sponsored by the Massachusetts Department of Education.

On March 7, the Committee spent the day in Newburyport, studying that city's form of government. After visiting classes at the high school in the morning and eating in the school cafeteria, the group and their adviser, Mr. Alfred N. Law, were taken on a tour of the city's industrial plants. Following dinner, the students attended a meeting of the Newburyport city council and learned much about city government.

When the exchange committee from Newburyport came to Methuen March 16 to study our form of government, the group toured our school, visited classes, and was taken to places of historical interest throughout the town. To complete the study, the students attended the annual town meeting in the evening. Each member of the visiting committee was given an exchange package containing the town history, a copy of the "Blue and White," and pictures of the town.

The purpose of this program, which was carried out in Methuen for the first time this year, is "to enrich knowledge of town and city government in Massachusetts; to gain greater appreciation of those who render competent, faithful public service; and to encourage pupils' pride in their local community."

The Glee Club

The Glee Club, now in its second year, has been working diligently under the direction of Mr. Edward Comtois. All of its seventy-five members are interested in music and enjoy singing patriotic and secular music as well as country and popular selections. This group performed at our Christmas program where a patriotic number and a lively spiritual were very well received. The Glee Club also participated in a radio show which was broadcast from our high school. This program, "For Your Approval," was presented over Station WCCM on January 28, 1955. Plans are now being made for the Glee Club to take part in a musical festival at Beverly on May 7th.

Tenney High School Band

We have been very fortunate this year as in the past to have had such a fine high school band. You can always count on a fine showing from this band under the leadership of Mr. Harold McDonnell. In past years the bands have shown themselves capable of taking high honors in conclaves. Last year at Lexington our band was recommended for first place in B group. This year was no exception. Once again the Tenney High Band walked away with high honors. The band is always heard at rallies, football games and assemblies, showing their versatility in playing marches, popular, and classical pieces.

The Orchestra

Our orchestra is only in its second year of existence, the high school having been without one for many years previously. Its small membership may have detracted somewhat from its glory, but it has not in the least altered the faithfulness of its members in rehearsing. Their ability was proved when the orchestra performed for the radio program which was broadcast from our school. We hope that our school will continue to produce orchestras just as fine in the years to come.

The orchestra personnel— 1st Violins: Sandra Seglin, John Byrne, Gregory Johnson. 2nd Violins: Ruth Ann Habeeb, Mary Lou King, Caroline Mathews, James McMorrow. Clarinet: Marie Drouin. Horn: Stanley Pelczar. Trumpet: Robert Carter. Piano: Brenda March, Grace Torrisi, Phyllis Szelest. Mrs. Hazel Hadfield, Director.

Italian Club

The Italian Club consisted solely of students studying the second year of this foreign language. Meetings were conducted every second week, and a musical program usually followed the business program. A Winter Social was held on February 9th, 1955 at the Rendez-vous Restaurant, where an Italian supper was served. Music for the general dancing was supplied by students' records. The club plans its sixth annual excursion to Boston, which will terminate the year's activities, and will be held on June 1, 1955. Also, an Italian style supper will be enjoyed by those who attend the excursion.

The officers of the Italian Club are— Alfred Torrisi, president; Philip Spada, vice-president; Dorothy Grande, secretary; Harley Freedman, treasurer. The club is under the supervision of Mr. William Piccerillo.

ACTIVITIES

Sports

Standing: J. Ricci, M. Moss (capt.-elect,) C. Hoyt, S. Marshman, A. Manning, A. Timms
Kneeling: R. Collins, F. Schruender (capt.,) P. Doerr

The Cheerleaders

Back: B. Patch, S. Clifford, A. Davis, S. Cavenaugh, E. Ianalffo, B. Brainard.

Front: J. Ball, C. McAndrew, J. McAndrew, C. Voight (capt.,) P. Dowd, J. Thompson, R. Contarino.

The Majorettes

If you've seen a high stepping group strutting in front of the Tenney High School band, you can be sure they were the majorettes of '55. Led by their captain, Carol Voigt, they performed with skill and ease during the football halves. They also were observed proudly marching in several festive parades. A big round of applause goes to you, girls, and also to your instructor, Miss Dorothy Chadwick.

First Row: Salois, Poulin, W. Deming, Huston, Vernis (capt.) Chatis, F. Tetler, Towne, Wilson. Donovan.
Second Row: Ass't Coach Wolfendale, R. Tetler, Pringle, Koscielniak, Wainwright, Weinhold, Arold (capt.-elect,) Qualters, Defusco, Skaff, K. Deming, Sanguedolce, Coach Sheehan.
Third Row: Mahoney, Wagenbach, Fisicelli, Waite, Piccerallo, Morse, Tkach, Gialongo, Mercier.

Football

Although the football team did not break into the win column too often this season, their spirit and sportsmanship at all times made them a true credit to our school. As it turned out, our team was scheduled to play against much stronger and larger teams; nevertheless, the boys were in there fighting all the way. Captain "Chuck" Vernis was a capable leader, as he encouraged his teammates by his fine example of spirit and ball playing. Coach "Dixie" Sheehan was ably assisted by Ralph Wolfendale, who did a good job in handling the line. The Andrew Haldane Memorial Trophy was awarded to a most deserving senior, Peter Huston, for his outstanding athletic performance, sportsmanship, and citizenship.

For the first time this year, the team chose a "Football Queen." The lucky recipient of this honor was Sheila Allard. Chuck crowned Sheila at the Punchard rally in the auditorium. The Queen, as she marched in front of the band, majorettes, and cheerleaders the day of the Punchard game, was the pride of Tenney High.

Back: S. Skop, B. Alacrese, E. Esperian, D. Maguire, S. Seglin, P. Deluca, B. Aubert, B. Puzniak, J. Allen, E. Cornell, I. Deandrus, B. Kennedy, L. Croteau, L. Rocks, F. Brett, A. Middlemiss, O. Nassar, S. Ricci, Dorothy Chadwick (coach.)

Front: C. Licata, C. Lorenze, U. Stundze, M. Dietrich, P. Dowd, V. Levielle, J. Ricci, C. Strovink, F. Foster, N. Whittemore.

Girls' Field Hockey

Field Hockey was successfully introduced into the girls' sports program at Tenney High School this fall. The enthusiasm shown for this new sport was excellent. However, because the varsity team was formed so late in the season, there was only opportunity for two games to be played with other schools and both of them were played away from home. With the greater part of the varsity squad returning in the fall, Coach Chadwick is assured a successful season next year. At an assembly before the entire student body, Mr. Beaumont presented twelve members of the squad with their varsity letters.

Front: Hughes, Ward, Fay, Pickles, Aghoian, Leger, Wilson.

Back: Coach Hannigan, Kay, Weirnick, Navaris, Weinhold, Tillberg, Rimas, Sobel, Piccerillo, K. Wilson.

Track Team

The track team was recently called out, and an impressive group showed up for first practice. Among the turnout were four seniors,—Frank Fay, Jack Pickles, Richard Aghoian, and Mitchell Saab. Under the leadership of captain Jack Pickles the team is hoping for a successful season.

The returning lettermen are Frank Fay, Jack Pickles and Jack Rimus. Captain Pickles is in the mile and high jump events; Fay is a mile and broad jump man; Aghoian, a new man to the team, is a shot-put, 100 yard dash, and broad jump man; while Saab, also a new man, is out for the 100 yard dash and shot-put.

Kneeling: J. Sobel, R. Kirkman (capt.,) Poulin

Standing: R. DiCenzo, G. Max, E. Sobel, D. Perry, T. DiFruscio

Golf

Methuen High's 1955 golf team is the most promising team we have had in a long time. The team is captained by veteran Ronald Kirkman, who is present Caddy Champion of the Merrimack Valley Country Club. The team was recently augmented by the return of veteran golfers George Max and Eugene Poulin. Other promising members of the team are Eddie Sobel, Bob DeCenzo and Danny Perry. The two young experience-seeking alternates are Joe Sobel and Tony DeFuscio.

The Tenney High golf team is playing a tough schedule, but they are sure to make a good showing in every match.

Front: Reich, Weinhold, Tutunjian, Tardie (capt.,) Leger, Patterson, P. DiCenzo, Wagenbach.
Back: Coach Barry, Breton, B. Drew, Rimas, Nadeau, Valcourt, Graham, Donavan, Eichorn, (mgr.)

Boys' Basketball

The basketball picture at Tenney High appeared none too bright this past fall. There were only a few players on the squad with varsity experience. But strenuous practice sessions under the guidance of Coach Barry soon had the team functioning well. During the season our team provided many exciting games where individual and team play were outstanding. The regular season's record stands at 16-7. For the second year in a row the Tenney quintet qualified for play in the "Tech Tourney Prelims." The immediate basketball picture of Tenney is bright, because the entire squad will return in the fall.

First Row: Barnat, Seglin, Licata, J. Darlington, Dowd, Marshman, Thwaites.
Second Row: Allard (mgr.,) Hoyt, Welch, Kelleher (capt.,) V. Laveille, H. Darlington, Grande, Slater.
Third Row: Lister, Dietrich, B. Hajjar, Miss Chadwick, (coach;) Watkins, L. Hajjar (capt.-elect) C. Strovink, B. Briggs.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team, led by Gail Kelleher and coached by Miss Dorothy Chadwick ended the season with a record of eight wins and one defeat. With Marty Dietrich cutting fast for lay-up shots and jumping high for the rebounds, Val Laveille and Bev Welsh divided the pleasures of sharp-shooting. C. Thwaites' promising ability in passing revealed a great display of team-work. On the opposite end of the court, the guards did an equally good job, keeping the opposing forwards on the move. Barbara Hajjar excelled in controlling the backboard, while "little" Dot Grande gave even the tallest forwards a rough time. Gail Kelleher, captain of the team, deserves congratulations for leadership and great assistance in guarding and rebounding. Credit is due to J. Lister, C. Hoyt, C. Strovink and D. Ravgalia who served as alternates. Well deserving captain elect, Barbara Hajjar, will have the entire team with the exception of only four seniors to work with for an equally successful season next year.

Kneeling: C. Sweet, P. Arold, J. Tardie, H. Wainwright, P. Spada (capt.,) A. Laurin, C. Vernis, W. Deming, R. Bretton.

Standing: Coach Barry, S. Amanachian, P. DiCenco, L. Waite, J. Rizkallah, R. Drew, R. Bouchard, D. Clark, R. Simonean, H. Ralph. (mgr.)

Baseball

The 1955 baseball team was eager to get off to an early start in spring training under the direction of Coach Barry. Greatly encouraged by the success of last season they are out to improve their record.

Captain Phil Spada and his Rangers hope to make 1955 a memorable season by winning the Merrimac Valley Championship a s they did in the 1954 season.

In the games they have shown flexibility and cooperation. Many thrilling games were the result of their combined ability.
